

REDLEAF WATER IS THE OFFICIAL 2010 SPRING TRAINING WATER OF THE LOS ANGELES ANGELS OF ANAHEIM AND THE OAKLAND ATHLETICS

Phoenix Municipal Stadium and Tempe Diablo Stadium Now Exclusively Serving redleaf Ultra-Premium Bottled Water, Available in National U.S. Grocery Store This Month

PHOENIX and TEMPE, Ariz. – March 3, 2010 – Play ball! redleaf, Canada's ultra-premium bottled water, today announced that it's the official water of the 2010 Spring Training season for the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim and the Oakland Athletics. redleaf water (www.redleafwater.com) will be sold at all concession stands and by vendors; as well as served in all clubhouses and dugouts at both Tempe Diablo Stadium (home of the Angels) and Phoenix Municipal Stadium (home of the A's). redleaf water will soon be available in stores throughout Arizona, giving fans visiting the stadiums an ultra-premium water to enjoy during Spring Training.

redleaf at Phoenix Municipal Stadium

- The A's home field is the Phoenix Municipal Stadium, which attracted 100,000 fans during Spring Training in 2009.
- redleaf water will be visible on an outfield sign (8' high x 32' wide) and available through all vendors in the stadium.
- The stadium has been the Spring Training home of the A's since 1982. Additional annual events at the stadium include the Arizona Fall League (Desert Dogs), Men's Senior Baseball League World Series and the National Adult Baseball Association World Series.

redleaf at Tempe Diablo Stadium

- The Angels play at Tempe Diablo Stadium, where more than 120,000 fans watched the team in action last year.
- redleaf water will be visible on a new permanent scoreboard (17' high x 6' wide) and available through all vendors in the stadium.
- Additional annual events at the stadium include Little League, Men's Senior Baseball League and the National Adult Baseball Association.

“redleaf is excited to be the official Spring Training water for the Angel’s and A’s at two fan-friendly stadiums in Arizona,” said Dave Hillis, chief operating officer, redleaf water. “We will work closely with our grocery store partner in Arizona on coupon programs so that fans leaving either game can continue to enjoy redleaf water outside the stadium.”

redleaf water benefits:

Ultra-premium source:

- An artesian aquifer in the Canadian Rockies that is renewable and naturally replenished.

Ultra-premium for the body:

- No chemicals used in the bottling process or plant.
- Micro-oxygenated to boost alertness, energy and re-hydration.
- Magnetized which allows red blood cells to easily absorb oxygen.
- Filtered four times for ultra-purification and natural mineral retention.

Ultra-premium commitment to the earth:

- Bottled at the source in a state-of-the-art, eco-friendly bottling facility.
- 1:1 filtration process for no wasted water (most bottled waters are 6:1).
- The BPA-free bottle, cap and shrink wrap are 100% recyclable.
- Small carbon footprint – not shipped from overseas.

More information on redleaf water and store availability may be found at www.redleafwater.com.

About redleaf

redleaf, Canada’s ultra-premium bottled water, is superior in content, taste and purity. redleaf’s corporate mission is simple: produce and distribute bottled water that is good for people as well as good for the earth. Founded in 2008, redleaf’s state-of-the-art, 75,000 square foot, earth-friendly bottling facility is built over the artesian aquifer at the base of the Canadian Rockies in Chilliwack, British Columbia. Follow redleaf water on Twitter: www.twitter.com/redleafwater or fan on Facebook (search “redleaf water”).

###